Dedication

The Class of Nineteen Hundred Forty-one of Holy Family High School

deems it an honor and a privileqe in being the first class to dedicate an issue of The Maria to its devoted Pastor under his new title,

The Right Reverend Monsignor John F. McKeon, P. R.

OMNIA PER MARIAM

"Mary! one gift I beg of thee.
My soul from sin and sorrow free,
Direct my wandering feet aright,
And be thyself mine own true light."

Rev. F. W. Faber.

"All things through Mary." What a beautiful thing it is to realize that we can place our hopes, our fears, our cares, our sorrows, our sufferings, with confidence, in her hands, and know that all the graces of spiritual progress will come to us only through her. It is to Mary we have prayed for vocational guidance and inspiration during our four cherished years at Holy Family. After leaving our high school days behind us it will be to Mary, ever blessed, to whom we shall pray that we may draw from her an increase of loving confidence in her Immaculate Heart, and also in the Sacred Heart of her Divine Son.

Ruth Ursula Limerick.

A GRADUATE'S PRAYER

O Mary, Queen of every heart,
Please listen to our plea,
And shower down thy wealth of love
On those who cry to thee.
Protect the students of our school,
And if they chance to stray,
Destroy their fears and comfort them
In thy sweet loving way.
When Satan with his cunning smile
Entices them from thee,
Crush his head as once thou did,
And set thy children free.
Entreat thy Son to guard us all,
Yes, each and every one;
And tell Him to remember well
The Class of Forty-one.

Edna Dupre

Tribute to Father Fitzgerald

The integrity and constancy of Father Fitzgerald have been as a beacon, guiding us throughout our school career. May his influence ever encourage us to seek the better things in life !

PRAYER FOR A PRIEST

O Jesus, Eternal Priest, keep this Thy holy one within the shelter of Thy Sacred Heart, where none may touch him.

Keep unstained his anointed hands, which daily touch Thy Sacred Body.

Keep unsullied the lips purpled with Thy Precious Blood.

Keep pure and unearthly a heart sealed with the sublime marks of Thy Glorious Priesthood.

Let Thy holy love surround him and shield him from the world's contagion.

Bless his labors with abundant fruit, and may they to whom he has ministered be here below his joy and consolation and in Heaven his beautiful and everlasting crown.

TO OUR FACULTY

To you who pointed out the path
Which led to progress, truth, and right,
And lined this way with trust and faith;
To you who planted pure ideals
By your wisdom, courage, and noble zeal;
To you who helped to nourish the seed
By your cheerful toil and sacrifice;
Who gave your time unselfishly
That we might learn true reverence
For the changeless Friend we love and serve,
We offer our sincere gratitude,
Our constant love and loyalty,
And beseech our Friend to smile on you,
His richest graces to bestow.

NORBERT PEDRO FRAGA

"Nobby"

Betsy B. Winslow School Scientific Course

Our class president has been most interested in school activities from his first year at Holy Family. A member of the football team, of the dramatic club, and of the boys' verse choir, Norbert has been rather a busy individual. He is fond of music and outdoor sports, and hopes to go to Providence College.

"He that bears himself like a gentleman
Is worthy to have been born a gentleman."

BERNARD VINCENT VANASSE

"Chinky"

Sacred Heart School Commercial Course

Meet our star athlete whose excellent work in all sports has won for him the admiration of many. "Chinky" is quiet, has very little to say, but often unexpectedly reveals a keen sense of humor. His ambition is to become an athletic coach. We feel sure that he will be well qualified for such a position. He has served as captain of the champion basketball team for the past two years and as vice-president of the class during the senior year.

"None but himself can be his parallel."

CATHERINE JEANNE McCROHAN

Holy Name School Classical Course

Jeanne is the young lady who can solve all "math" problems. She plans to attend Bridgewater State College where she will matriculate in Mathematics. Her ambition then is to teach Mathematics. Jeanne has been class treasurer this year and did very fine work. The members of the Alumni found her a most efficient member of the dance committee in November. She likes outdoor sports, swimming, dancing and knitting.

"Discretion is the perfection of reason,
And a guide to win all the duties of life."

MARY CLAIRE MORRIS

"Claire"

St. Kilian's Commercial Course

Claire is an excellent student, takes a deep interest in her studies and enjoys helping others. She was the first member of the Commercial Department to receive a Gregg pin for typing. She has been class treasurer, vice-president in the third year, and Secretary during her Senior year. Claire also represented our school as a cheer leader. Her plans for the future are not yet definite. We feel that whatever her work may be it will be well done.

"And every lesson that's assigned,
She deftly stores up in her mind."

MILDRED MARY ANTHONY

"Mildred"

Saint Kilian's General Course

Mildred is a jovial lass who spreads cheerfulness wherever she goes. Her classmates consider her a good companion, a reliable and generous friend. Mildred's favorite pastimes are dancing and ice skating. She plans a secretarial course next year.

"Mildred is always gay;
She is ready with her greetings
When we meet her every day."

MILDRED PATRICIA ARMSTRONG

"Milly"

Holy Name General Course

"Milly" is an unassuming member of our class. She and the other Mildred are very often seen together. "Milly" likes skating and dancing. Her plans for the future are to be a nurse. Her quiet manner will surely make a deep impression on her patients.

"True to her word, her work and her friends."

IRENE MARIE BELANGER

Saint Anthony's Commercial Course

Collecting photographs and reading seem to interest this shy young lady. She enjoys a good joke now and then, but for the most part her presence in the classroom is never realized, except, of course, when she is called upon to recite. Her answers always testify that she has prepared her lessons very well. Her goal is a business career. During her first year Irene was class secretary.

"Smiling, cheerful and true;
Many kind things she will do."

MARGARET MARY BERRY

"Peg"

Holy Name Commercial Course

Margaret is a cheerful, friendly girl who is often seen about town driving a car. She likes music and plays an accordion to perfection. When she makes an error, the words, "Hang it", frequently are heard to escape from her lips. Margaret is planning a secretarial course for next year's school work.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

TERESA ELIZABETH CALLANAN

"Terry"

Holy Family Commercial Course

Teresa is a quiet, peaceful girl, always willing to help others. Since she is an outstanding student in accounting class, Teresa will prove herself an efficient accountant. Skating and dancing are her main interests when she is not in school. She was very happy to be chosen to represent her class at the crowning ceremony this May.

"Winsome, happy and charming,
Always and ever smiling,
Right into our hearts she's grown."

JOAN MARIE CHOQUETTE

"Jo"

Cathedral High School General Course
Helena, Montana

This little Montana lassie has brightened many days of our senior year. We were always interested listeners when she talked of her western friends. It is an ill wind that blows no one good, so we are glad that Joan decided to come to Holy Family. If she returns to the West again, we hope her memories of Holy Family will be happy ones.

"May the snowy wings
Of innocence and love protect thee!"

PATRICIA CATHERINE CLARKE

"Pat"

Holy Name Classical Course

Patricia is very studious and never misses an opportunity to increase her knowledge. She does not spend all her time studying for she is an artist and has spent hours doing posters and covers for the Hy Fy Spy. "Pat" has been a member of the dramatic club for three years. In the near future she hopes to begin her training as a student nurse.

"Attempt, the end, and never stand in doubt
Nothing's so hard, but search will find it out."

LOUISE NOELLA COHOLAN

"Lou"

Holy Name Commercial Course

This little miss appears very quiet, but do not be deceived. She is always ready for fun. She, "Juicy" and "Kay" Saunders have been rather inseparable throughout their four years of high school. When one was at a loss for fun, one of the other two usually supplied a means of merriment for the class. Louise hopes to be a stenographer. When her time is free, she enjoys skating and swimming in their seasons.

"My tongue within my lips I rein,
For who talks too much must talk in vain."

ULYSSE ALBINE JOSEPH COMEAU

"Useless"

Saint Anthony's Classical Course

Ulysse is a gentleman and a scholar. He's the sort of fellow who, come what will, keeps his chin up and faces the world with a smile. On the other hand, "Useless" does not allow his jovial spirit to interfere with his studies. He plans to enter the Coast Guard Academy and to be a success in this way.

"Experience teacheth us
That resolution's a sole help at need."

FRANCIS LAWRENCE CONNOR

"Fran"

Saint Kilian's Commercial Course

Francis is a happy fellow, usually smiling, and always ready to give others a laugh. He's interesting in serving his country as a yeoman. He encourages his companions with, "Don't let it bother you." May he carry that philosophy of life with him in the years to come!

"Without, or with offence to friends or foes,
I sketch the world exactly as it goes."

JAMES EDWARD CORBETT

"Jimmie"

Holy Family Scientific Course

This curly-haired gentleman has played basketball for three years, and baseball for two years on the school teams. He is also a graceful dancer. He likes to read and if any of his friends disturb him when he is engrossed in a good story, he invites them to "Buzz Off".

"We live in deeds, not years — in thoughts,
not breaths,—
We should count our time by heart-throbs.
He most lives
Who thinks most — feels the noblest — acts
the best."

EDWARD ARTHUR CORMIER

"Gaspee"

Holy Name Classical Course

Edward took part in dramatics for three years, boys' verse choir for two years, basketball for two years and kept his name on the honor list for four years. Somewhat serious in appearance, yet he enjoys life to its fullest extent. He plans to enter Saint Charles in Baltimore for the next two years. Before many years he hopes to enter the priesthood.

"God gives each man
One life where kindle feeling, thought and will
And bids him hold it like a torch on high
To light himself and others."

DONALD JOSEPH CURRY

"Don"

Holy Family Scientific Course

Donald is a real optimist. He seems to be able to picture only the bright side of things. Don came into prominence in his Freshman year during the Christmas play. Since then he has been a live member of the dramatic club. This past year, however, he has been very busy outside school hours.

Gather the rose-buds while ye may
Old time is still a-flying,
And the same flower that blooms today,
Tomorrow shall be dying.

LILLIAN ANNA DAUPLAISE

"Chief"

Holy Family General Course

Lillian was with us as a Freshman but left to go to New Bedford High School for her second and third years. She just could not endure being separated from us, so she returned to finish her high school career at Holy Family. Dramatics and debating have occupied her interests. Lillian hopes to be a student at Textile School next year.

"Eyes so bright that beam with fun
And a hearty 'Hello' for everyone."

RAYMOND RALPH DENEAULT

"Rusty"

Saint Anthony's Commercial Course

"Rusty" is a very popular member of his class, especially in the Commercial Department. He appears good-natured but he has a way of holding his own and winning his point. He has musical talent and hopes some day to lead an orchestra.

"Heaven is not reached at a single bound;
But we build the ladder by which we rise
From the lowly earth to the vaulted skies
And we mount to the summit round by round."

ROLAND JOSEPH DENEAULT

"Bachie"

Joliet Seminary, Canada Scientific Course

"Bachie" graduated from Saint Anthony School, but studied in Canada before he entered Holy Family. He has appeared in dramatics, in the boys' verse choir and on the football gridiron. He promotes Catholic Action by grouping younger Catholic boys together as scouts. Roland aims to be a machinist in the Coast Guard Service.

"A peace above all other dignities,
A still and quiet conscience."

IRENE GERTRUDE DEXTRADEUR

"I"

Saint Joseph's Commercial Course

Irene is a bright, diligent pupil and does well whatever is assigned to her. During lunch periods she can add a bit of merriment to the group, for she realizes that, "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." She likes to embroider and enjoys a game of tennis.

"Zeal and duty are not slow,
But on occasion's forelock watchful wait."

JEANNE THERESE DUFOUR

"Jeannie"

Saint Joseph's Commercial Course

Jeanne may be very small, but she won our hearts in a big way. She takes active part in school activities, especially dramatics. She, too, looks forward to an office position. Jeanne has been a member of the Hy Fy Spy staff during her senior year.

"Tho' small in stature and quiet in mien,
There's hidden beneath all this, we've seen
Humor and wit that never dies."

EDNA THERESA DUPRE

"Eddie"

Holy Name Commercial Course

"Eddie" is the witty member of her group. She has always a smile even when she utters her familiar, "Oh, gee!" which usually follows an extra long assignment for homework. Edna writes poetry, not exactly extemporaneously, but with great facility. Next year will find Edna in some business school.

"Gather the rose-buds while ye may,
Old time is still a-flling,
And the same flower that blooms todav,
Tomorrow shall be dying."

MELANIA Da LUZ FERREIRA

"Melly"

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

Melania is very fond of music and of reading. Her recitations in English class makes the latter fact very evident. She has been most active in dramatics. We shall not soon forget her in the role of Flavia as she appeared in "'Patricia". She plans to be a secretary and would like to be able to do charity work.

"For a girl very clever
And different from the rest
We'll select our Melania
She will always stand the test."

NATALIE Da LUZ FERREIRA

"Nat"

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

"Very quiet and studious," her classmates had proclaimed her but all was changed after Natalie appeared in "Old-Fashioned Girl" as Kate King, a famous author of many books. Her gestures and her falsetto, convinced us that she had an art of which we were formally unaware. Natalie's charming, helpful manner has endeared her to her classmates. Her hobby is collecting coins and stamps.

"Hope, like the gleaming taper's light,
Adorns and cheers the way.
And still as darker grows the night
Emits a brighter ray."

PAUL FRANCIS FREY

Holy Family Scientific Course

Paul has represented Holy Family on the baseball team for three years and has been a member of the dramatic club for the past two years. He is not fond of performing, in public, however. Therefore, he has been more or less a nominal member of the dramatic club. He is fond of music and likes to play tennis. As a Junior, Paul was class president.

"He is so full of pleasing anecdote,
So rich, so gay, so poignant in his wit,
Time vanishes before him as he speaks."

ROSE MARY GAGNE

Saint Kilian's General Course

Our class would not be complete without Rose. She is always present where there is fun: quite often she is the merry-maker herself. Rose intends to become a nurse. She has been interested in dramatics and in the verse choir. During her senior year especiallv, Rose and Margaret Tighe have been constant, good friends. Where you see one, you usually see the other.

"Into our thoughts comes dancing
A maid with smile entrancing."

AGNES DOROTHY GALLAGHER

"Aggie"

Saint Joseph's General Course

Agnes is the outstanding actress of Room 6 as has been evidenced by the fine work done during several of our plays. She possesses a charming personality, therefore, we are confident that her affable disposition will win for her many friends. As a member of the cheering squad, Agnes helped our team to victory this year. She has also been an active member of the Hy Fy Spy and the Maria staffs. As Polly, in "An Old-Fashioned Girl", Agnes proved herself capable of forming her role.

"Jolly, good-natured and sweet;
She's a girl you'd like to meet."

IRENE RITA GALLAGHER

"I"

Holy Name Commercial Course

This lively girl always managed to get her homework done on time, although she attended most of the ball games played by our boys. She has a cheerful smile for all. Irene likes hiking and is fond of reading. She has an interesting collection of scrap books.

"Unfee'd the calls of nature she obeys
Nor led by profit, nor allured by praise."

DONALD ALLEN GILLIS

"Don"

Holy Family General Course

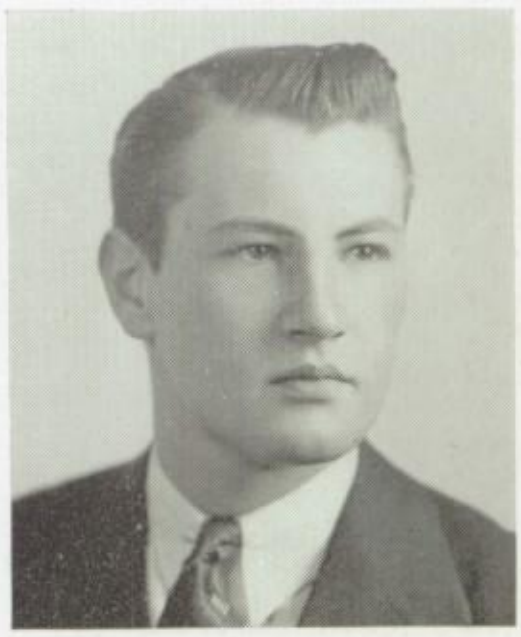
"Don" is a tall, gracious lad of the General Course. His dramatic ability has brightened many of our assemblies. In basketball and football Donald has also played a very active part. During his senior year, he and John Senecal have been somewhat like Siamese twins. Wherever one was, the other was sure to be. Donald was class treasurer in his Junior year.

"All the world's a stage;
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances
And one man in his turn plays many parts."



ELIZABETH HENRIETTA GILLIS

"Betty"

Holy Family Classical Course

"Betty" is fond of reading, writing and discussing topics of interest. She hopes to study journalism. Her creditable work in English classes won for her the position of Editor-in-Chief of the Hy Fy Spy staff this year. Betty has also taken part in dramatics but has not appeared publicly as often as Donald. She is a sport enthusiast as may be judged from her attendance at Holy Family games.

"The secret of success
Is constancy to purpose."

YVONNE GENEVIEVE GOGUEN

"Yvonne"

Saint Joseph's Commercial Course

This popular blonde girl of Room 7 possesses a wonderful personality. She is cheerful and courteous at all times. She is clever with knitting needles; now you know what she likes to do when she is not studying. Yvonne, too, wants to be somebody's secretary. When her name is added to the long list of would-be-secretaries, why should any business man be without one?

"Devoted, anxious, generous, void of guile,
And with her whole heart's welcome in her smile."

OWEN FRANCIS HACKETT

"Butch"

Holy Family Scientific Course

Owen's one of Room 6's most ambitious young men. He can combine work and play with apparently little difficulty. A member of the champion basketball team for two seasons, yet he is an efficient clerk at Kelleher's outside school hours and basketball practice. In spite of all these activities Owen is very affable and courteous.

Ambition is the germ,
From which all growth of nobleness proceeds.

JOSEPH MICHAEL HARDMAN

"Joe"

Saint Kilian's Scientific Course

Joseph appeared on the baseball diamond for the past two years. He has a hobby for experimenting with photography. Some of the pictures in this issue of the Maria are "Joe's" work. He likes "Swing Music", and is fond of hunting. He hopes to obtain a Civil Service position in the near future.

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast,
To soften rocks, and bend the knotted oak."

LEO JAMES HARRISON

"Leo"

Saint Kilian's Scientific Course

Leo is a quiet but determined lad. He means to get ahead in the world. His main interest this year has been chemistry. Indeed, he would have liked to spend the greater part of his time in the laboratory doing things. When on vacation Leo takes to the woods for his favorite pastime is hunting.

"Without, or with, offence to friends or foes,
I sketch the world exactly as it goes."

MARY VIRGINIA HAWORTH

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

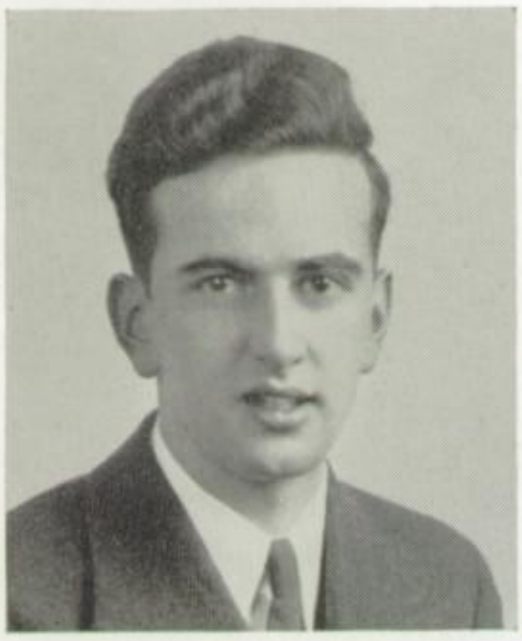
Wherever you find this carefree girl you will find "Smitty", for they are always together, even when "Mary" is late for class. Mary's in her element in English class, as we have learned from reading her original stories and poems. She can always brighten your day with her quick wit. She's very adept at dancing and she has appeared in several of our plays. Lest you deceive her she will often ask, "You're not kidding?"

"Mixed reason with pleasure
And wisdom with mirth."



WILLIAM ANTHONY HENDRICKS

"Bill"

Roosevelt Junior High School Scientific Course

"Bill" seems to be quiet and retiring, but do not be deceived. He enjoys fun and often causes it for others. He and "Jimmy" Mendoza have been faithful companions during their high school days. Bill likes sailing and spends many of his leisure moments on the water. His plans for next year are not complete but he does intend further study. He was a member of the boys' verse choir and has taken part in basketball and dramatics.

"I dare do all that may become a man;
Who dares do more, is none."

VINCENT JOSEPH KEIGHLEY

"Kike"

Saint Kilian's Scientific Course

Hunting and fishing claims this boy's attention wherever he is at leisure. Just for a diversion he models airplanes, too. During his Senior year, Vincent has written sport news for the Hy Fy Spy and the Maria. He would like to become a linotypist or a monotypist. Since he has been earnest in his duties while at Holy Family, we feel that he will "go places".

"Now, happy fisherman, now twitch the line!
How the rod bends! Behold the prize is thine."

THOMAS EDWARD KELLY

"Tom"

Holy Name Commercial Course

"Tom" is the studious type. His motto is, "Persevere and you will succeed". Thomas is a member of the trio, "'Kelly, Lopes and Luckraft", willing helpers at all times. His ambitions are great and therefore he will not let slip a good opportunity to advance himself in business life.

"If at first you don't succeed,
Then try, try again."

THERESA LUCILLE La FOREST

"Tess"

Sacred Heart General Course

Theresa is the "songbird" of Room 6. Her manner is rather independent, but she has a keen sense of humor. We have often enjoyed her vocal selections at our assemblies. Theresa's loyality to Holy Family has endeared her to all her classmates. Her ambition is to attend a conservatory of music and later to do orchestra work. She has also been prominent in dramatics and as a cheer leader.

"It's the song she sings and smiles she wears
That make the sunshine everywhere."

ANN MARIE LANGLOIS

Holy Name General Course

Ann has poise and charm. She is a sociable creature, is sincere and generous, and is well liked by all her classmates. Her hobby is reading. After graduation Ann plans to enter some nurses' training school. Many times during her high school days Ann has displayed her dramatic ability for us.

Fair nature's sweet simplicity,
With elegance refin'd.

MARY ANN LaROCHE

Saint Kilian's General Course

Mary also intends to make nursing her profession and hopes to enter Saint Luke's Hospital next September. Marv is very popular on the ice and on the dance floor, although in school her manner has been very demure. For the past two years she has been a member of the dramatic club. She and her cousin have been good "pals".

"As modest and shy
As a nun is she."

RUTH URSULA LIMERICK

"Ricky"

Holy Family Commercial Course

"Ricky", this demure blue-eyed miss has been an active member of the dramatic club. Twice she has played the part of a blushing bride. Ruth's English work has been outstanding; therefore, this past year she was appointed assistant editor of the Hy Fy Spy. She likes music and enjoys bowling and skating.

"Bright as the sun her eyes the gazers strike,
And like the sun, they shine on all alike."

FRANCIS XAVIER LOAN

"Franny"

Holy Name Commercial Course

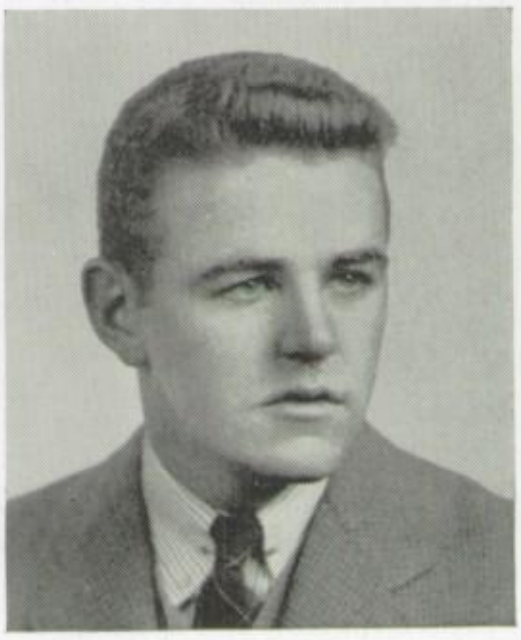
Very successful in sports, Francis has won fame for Holy Family, both on the gridiron and on the diamond. He hopes to further his education along these lines. Some day he mav return to Holy Family as Coach. Francis has a hobby of modelling airplane buildings.

"I judged a man by his speaking
His nature I could not tell.
I judged him by his silence,
And then I knew him well."



EDWARD VALENTINE LOPES

"Tubber"

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

Looking for an argument? Here is just the person you would like to meet. Edward has proved his ability in the art of debating many times. He has also exhibited dramatic ability in several of our plays. American History is his favorite study. He was one of our representatives in the radio quiz contest in American History. His most common expression when in friendly argument is "I'll betcha", although he is not a gambling man. We have previously mentioned that Edward is one of a certain trio.

"Titles of honor add not to his worth,
Who is an honor to his title."

ELAINE CLARE LUCKRAFT

"Lane"

Dominican Academy, Fall River — General Course

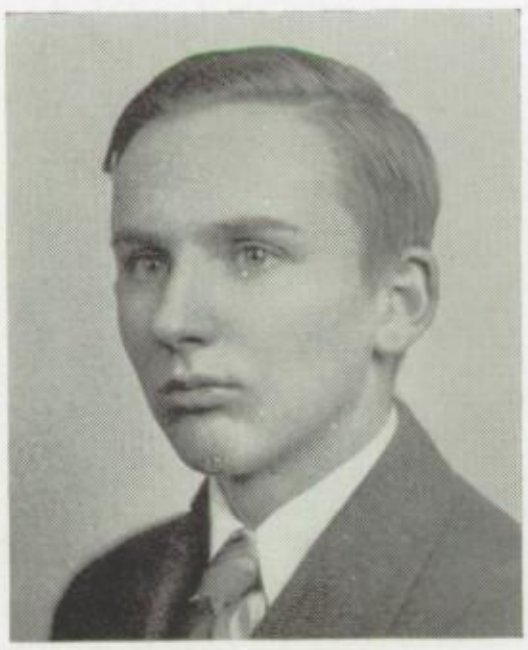
Here's a lass of whom Holy Family is justly proud. She is considered a genius by her classmates. She enjoys reading and is a fine impersonator as we found out during her Junior year at our Amateur show. Elaine was one of the school representatives during the American History radio quiz. She hopes in the future to specialize in nursing.

"Sometimes grave and sometimes gay."



LEO THOMAS LUCKRAFT

"Lee"

Saint Mary's — Commercial Course

Leo is a friendly chap and is almost "Tom's" shadow. In fact, there is a trio of them, Sister M. Monica's willing and faithful helpers, especially when there is multographing or mimeographing to be done. By this time you are, no doubt, wondering who the third member of the trio is. It is none other than "Ed" Lopes.. Lee's ambition is to join the navy. Who knows? Perhaps some day he'll be an admiral.

"If thou dost ill, the joy fades, not the pains;
If well, the pain doth fade,—the joy remains."

CATHERINE MARY MAGUIRE

"Kitty"

Roosevelt Junior High — General Course

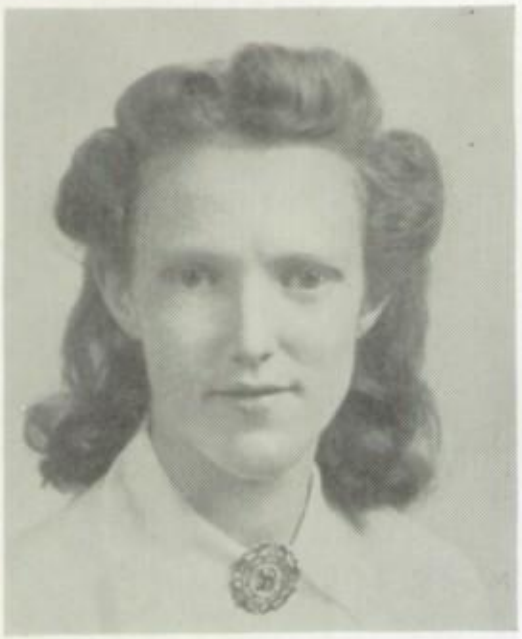
"Kitty" is a studious girl who has taken active part in all school affairs. Her lessons were always well done yet she found time to take part in dramatics and was a member of the group which represented Holy Family during the American History Quiz Contest. Catherine plans to be a nurse. We say her patients will be fortunate.

"Quick, to do, quick to dare;
She sprinkles sunshine everywhere."



ELIZABETH ANNE MARSHALL

"Betty"

Holy Name General Course

"Betty" is a witty member of the class and has brightened many classes with her wise expressions. "Betty" has many pen pals in this wide world of ours. She must be a good correspondent; else she would not be able to retain these friends in distant places. She is not too easily convinced of all she is told, hence she offers a retort, "Tell it to Sweeney".

"Be wise;
Soar not too high to fall, but stoop to rise."

SIMONNE PEARL MARTIN

"Sim"

Presentation of Mary Convent
Canada Commercial Course

"Silence is golden," seems to be Simonne's motto while school is in session, but after work is over she can be as lively as her classmates. Her ever obliging manner has won for her many friends. Simonne plans to be someone's bookkeeper; we feel certain that she will be satisfactory to her employer.

"Good nature and good sense must ever join;
To err is human, to forgive divine."

DOROTHY ELIZABETH MEADE

"Dot"

New Bedford High School Commercial Course

There's never a dull moment when Dot's around. Though she came to us in the last year, she has spread her only contagious disease, happiness. Outside school hours Dorothy is often seen riding her bicycle, usually delivering messages or packages for her friends. She is fond of music and hopes to study it.

"Good actions crown themselves with lasting bays;
Who well deserves needs not another's praise."

JAMES GONZAGA MENDOZA

"Jimmie"

Saint Mary's Classical Course

"Jim" played in the orchestra for two years, was a member of the boys' verse choir and of the dramatic club. He has a wholesome earnestness and fidelity to duty which one likes to see in a young man. He has aspirations for the priesthood which we hope will be realized.

"His look composed and steady eye
Bespoke a matchless constancy."

RITA VERONICA MORAN

"Rita"

Holy Family Commercial Course

Very quiet in manner and small in stature, Rita is a pleasing companion. She has chosen dancing for her outside interest and intends to be a dancing instructor. Next year's work is still under consideration.

"Friendship above all ties does bind the heart,
And faith in friendship is the noblest part."

WILFRED THOMAS MOSS

"Wolfie"

Lebanon High School Scientific Course
Lebanon, Pennsylvania

Wilfred entered Holy Family during his Sophomore year, left it and went to Springfield for less than a year, then returned to Holy Family. He is a member of the dramatic club, was head cheer leader this year, is interested in boats, especially sailboats. His plans for the future are not yet definite.

" . . . . . Seize the transient hour,
Improve each moment as it flies;
Life's a short summer — man a flower."

MARY ELIZABETH MULVEY

"May"

Saint Kilian's Commercial Course

This charming girl has won the hearts of her classmates during her four years at Holy Family High. She has a marvelous sense of humor, yet it is not discernible during school hours. She is devoted, generous, void of guile, with her heart's welcome in her smile.

"Let us then be up and doing,
With a heart for every fate;
Still achieving, still pursuing
Learn to labour, and to wait."

MAURICE ARTHUR NORMANDEAU

"Jack"

Sacred Heart School Scientific Course

Maurice has been a real service man whenever any plays were being staged. Seldom seen, he has spent many hours adjusting lights, scenery and curtain. His assistance has been generously given and graciouslv and gratefully accepted. A member of the boys' verse choir, of the dramatic club, and of the football team for three years, Maurice need not tell us that he is interested in sports. He would like to become a navigator.

" . . . . Ambition is the germ
From which all growth of nobleness proceeds."

KATHERINE ANNA O'CONNOR

"Kay"

Holy Family Commercial Course

A very hearty laugh and dancing eyes make Kay a most amiable girl. She, too, left us at the end of her first year. Kay does not believe in worrying but merely shrugs her shoulders and dismisses any sort of annoyance with, "Tra La!" She plans to study interior decorating.

"Eyes that laugh and lips that smile,
She is happy all the while."

WILLIAM HENRY OHM

"Bill"

Saint Kilian's Commercial Course

Bill is an easy-going carefree lad who has often given his classmates a good laugh because of his witty remarks. He and Everett came from the same grammar school and have been traveling companions back and forth to high school for four years. However the best of friends must part. After graduation their paths may lead in opposite directions.

"A little nonsense, now and then,
Is found among the best of men."

HELEN MARY O'MALLEY

"Nell"

Holy Name Commercial Course

"Nell" is an all-round good scout, whose laughing Irish eyes make her likable to all who meet her. We feel that her ambition to be a secretary will be fulfilled, for she does shorthand and typing with great speed and accuracy. Helen is fond of dancing and likes to spend quiet evenings at home reading a good book.

"With smiles so fair
And dimples so rare."

NORMAN LEO PAQUETTE

"Porky"

Holy Family Commercial Course

Studies do not agree too well with Norman. At different times he has been manager of the basketball, baseball and football teams. His one ambition was for the Navy. He was a member of the Naval Reserves which were called to report at Newport during the early part of May. Wherever he may go, we wish him success and we hope that he will always be true to the principles taught him.

"I love the sailor — his eventful life —
His generous spirit — his contempt of danger —
His firmness in the gale, the wreck, and strife: —"

MURIEL MARIE PARADIS

Saint Ann's Commercial Course

Muriel likes to sing popular songs. If you wish to know the latest, come to Muriel and she will gladly oblige you. She has high ambitions, for she wishes to become a flying instructor. During the last two years Muriel has been a member of the Dramatic club.

"Music is the universal language of mankind."

LOUISE RITA PELL

"Lou"

Sacred Heart Commercial Course

If you have any problems in bookkeeping, just take them to Louise; she'll set you straight. She would like to teach bookkeeping in due time. Louise always has a friendly smile and is welcome in any group of young people. We hope that she will forever keep her affable disposition.

"Carefree, laughing and gay,
Happily treading life's joyous way."

CONRAD RENE PHANEUF

"Moe"

Sacred Heart School Scientific Course

Conrad played on the football team for two years, is especially interested in Chemistry and wishes to become a civil engineer. He has not held any office in his class, but has had keen enthusiasm in all school activities. He has been an honor student for the greater part of the four years spent at Holy Family.

"In peace there's nothing so becomes a man
As modest stillness and humility.'" '

DENISE JANINE ROBICHAUD

"Denny"

Saint Ann's Commercial Course

"Denny" is a fun-loving girl and as a member of the Dramatic club Denise proved her ability in "The Pampered Darling". Her most common expression is, "By golly". She hopes to become a civil service fingerprint expert. Denise was a member of the Hy Fy Spy staff during her Senior year.

"Forever foremost in the ranks of fun,
The laughing herald of the harmless pun."

CELIA MARGARET ROSE

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

"There's a time for everything, and everything in its place," is Celia's motto. She hopes to attend business college next vear. Her favorite outdoor interest is ice skating. Celia has been rather a quiet member of the class, yet we know that she has had a keen interest in all activities.

"Always a gentle, quiet girl
True to her duties is our pearl."

KATHERINE FRANCES SAUNDERS

"Kay"

Holy Name Commercial Course

"Kay" tired out her lungs in cheering for Holy Family's football team. She was a great success. Her plans are to attend a business school, possibly Katherine Gibb's Secretarial School. Later she will be a private secretary. Kay likes dancing and is fond of knitting which she does very well. During her Junior year she was class secretary.

"A maid with smile entrancing,
Is Katherine, so bright and gay,
And sunny all the livelong day."

JOHN LEON SENECAL

"Jean"

Saint Joseph Classical Course

"Senecal" played football every year and took part in dramatics for three years. He expects to attend a preparatory school next year. John is a likeable chap, but does not believe in working too hard. However, we believe that he may follow his father's profession and become a medical surgeon.

"There is no courage but in innocence;
No, constancy, but in an honest cause."

ALICE THERESA SHEEHAN

Holy Family General Course

Alice has the honor of having been chosen to represent Holy Family at the Summer School of Catholic Action which she attended last summer at Fordham University. She has been a good student, a willing and generous worker in dramatics and has appeared before the student body as a songster. She hopes sometime to become a registered nurse. We hope that she will always keep her lovable disposition.

"A sweet content
Passing all wisdom or its fairest flower."

ELIZABETH MARY SHERMAN

"Bette"

Holy Family Commercial Course

This quiet young miss always looks on the bright side of life. She is not easily discouraged, therefore, we feel sure that she will succeed in her future ambitions. "Bette" is an artist; many times we have used her designs for Hy Fy Spy material and for posters announcing our plays.

"Her pencil drew whate'er her soul designed."

LUCY ANN SHERMAN

Holy Family General Course

Lucy is another quiet, but sociable miss. Her plans for the future are as yet undecided, but we wish her success. She and her sister have been constant companions at school as well as at home. Lucy Ann likes to attend basketball and baseball games. Although she is quiet, she has a keen sense of humor.

"A dry remark, a hearty laugh, a winning smile."

DAVID WILBUR SIBOR

"Zip"

Holy Family Scientific Course

Stamp collecting and tennis claim the attention of this lad. During the first two years at Holy Family "Zip" appeared on the baseball and basketball teams. He claims to be a member of the Dramatic club, too, but we have never seen him in any cast. Of course, we realize there must be some silent members. Maybe he was one of the echoes heard from a distance. How about it, Dave?

"Mischief dances in his eyes,
And smiles upon his lips."

JULIA ELEANOR SMITH

"Juicy"

Holy Family Commercial Course

Julia is full of fun and always ready for a laugh, although in repose she presents a very serious countenance. Wherever Julia is, you are undoubtedly sure to see Louise Coholan and Katherine Saunders. They have been practically unseparable during their four years at Holy Family. Dorothy Meade joined the trio this year. Julia has a hobby for pretty hair ribbons. She hopes to be a telephone operator.

"Why should life all labor be?"

MARY JOSEPHINE SMITH

"Smitty"

Saint Mary's Commercial Course

Although Mary is petite she has been prominent in many ways, in the school orchestra, in dramatics and as a cheer leader. She likes to knit and uses the art to great advantage for herself and others. Someone who is looking for a private secretary will find in Mary just what he wants.

"A pleasing blond is she, and fair;
Of disposition—loving and rare."

EUGENE HENRY SULLIVAN

"Sully"

Holy Family Scientific Course

Eugene played on the baseball team for two years. He surely has an advantage over the majority of players. He is so tall that he ought to be able to size the situation on the field better than any others. He is another general utility man "back stage", whenever there is any work to be done. Eugene has artistic talent which he should develop further. He likes tennis, dancing and swimming. His future plans are not complete.

"The truly brave are soft of heart and eyes,
And feel for what their duty bids them do."

RITA MARY SULLIVAN

"Mickey"

Holy Family Commercial Course

"Mickey" is very lovable and gay. Never a cloud crosses her horizon. When she is a trifle annoyed or disappointed "Mickey's" favorite expression, "shucks" is heard. No one is more fond of knitting than Rita. We are witnesses of many fine specimens of her handiwork. Her literary ability won for her a place on the Hy Fy Spy staff.

"Not to him who rashly dares,
But to him who nobly bears,
Is the victor's garland sure."

MARY ELIZABETH SWARBRICK

"Betty"

New Bedford High Commercial Course

Mary did not join us until her Junior year. She's pleased to say that she has never regretted doing so. Her hobby is collecting stamps. Mary hopes to attend a business school next year.

"Playful blushes, that seem'd nought
But luminous escape of thought."

CLAIRE ANITA THIRY

Saint Joseph's Commercial Course

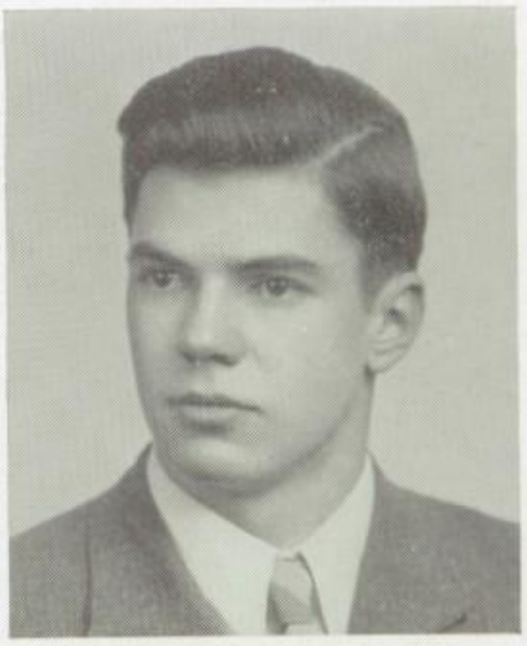
Claire's vivaciousness during her days at Holy Family has been most pleasing to all. She has appeared many times to great advantage in several of our plays. She likes to play tennis and may be seen very often on the Brooklawn Park tennis courts. This past year she was one of our attractive cheer leaders.

"If eyes were made for seeing
Then beauty is its own excuse for being."



JOSEPH ALBERT TORRES

"Speed"

Saint Joseph's Commercial Course

If you meet "Speed" you might wonder how he ever acquired such a nickname. He certainly does not believe in hurrying nor in becoming the least bit excited over things. In fact, he has a most Sphynx like expression. "Speed's" outside interest is homing pigeons. His reply to teasing of any kind is, "So what?"

"He's not noisy, loud or gay,
But enjoys life in a quiet way."

MARGARET THERESA TIGHE

Holy Family General Course

Margaret is one of the tallest girls in the class. She, too, is planning to enter a nurses training school. The members of this class ought to be well cared for in later years if all the prospective nurses persevere in their ambitions. Margaret and Alice Sheehan have been fast friends for several years. When Alice attended the Summer School of Catholic Action at Fordham University, Margaret accompanied her. Both girls will long remember that "glorious" week. Margaret is a basketball fan and attended all the games of the season.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

MARY TERESA TRAVERS

"Terry"

Holy Family Commercial Course

"Jeepers!" That's Terry's favorite expression. A good student is she who can always be depended upon to do the right thing. Her ambition is to be a hairdresser. As second choice she'd like to be a secretary. Teresa has gained many friends during her high school days. We wish her many more in the future.

"Ready for fun, ready for work;
Always ready and never a shirk."

AURORE LOUISE VIENS

"Aura"

Sacred Heart Commercial Course

Aurore is a quiet, studious girl, who has furnished much valuable information, particularly during the American History class. She represented Holy Family on the American History Radio Quiz and helped to bring us to success. As a pianist Aurore has furnished us some wonderful music for dancing during lunch periods. Her ambition is to be a concert pianist.

"As sweet and musical
As bright Apollo"s lute strung with his hair."

GERALDINE MARGARET VIERA

"Gerry"

Dartmouth High Commercial Course

"Gerry" joined us in our senior year. She is adept at studying as well as at dancing. With always a smile and a cherry, "Hello," Geraldine has been very popular among the Holy Family-ites. She enjoys football games and outdoor sports.

"She has many friends; oh, yes, indeed
And for all she has a smile."

MARGARET CEVILE VOGHEL

"Margie"

Saint Anthony's Commercial Course

"Margie" has all the qualities of a business woman except when she utters "O Gee!" Good-natured and courteous, Margaret is an industrious, zealous pupil and well liked by her classmates. She finds pleasure in dancing, riding and amateur photography. Her ambition is to become a doctor's private secretary.

"Truth worth is in being, not seeming
In doing each day that goes by some little good."

EVERETT STEPHEN WARD

"Scoop"

Saint Kilian's Commercial Course

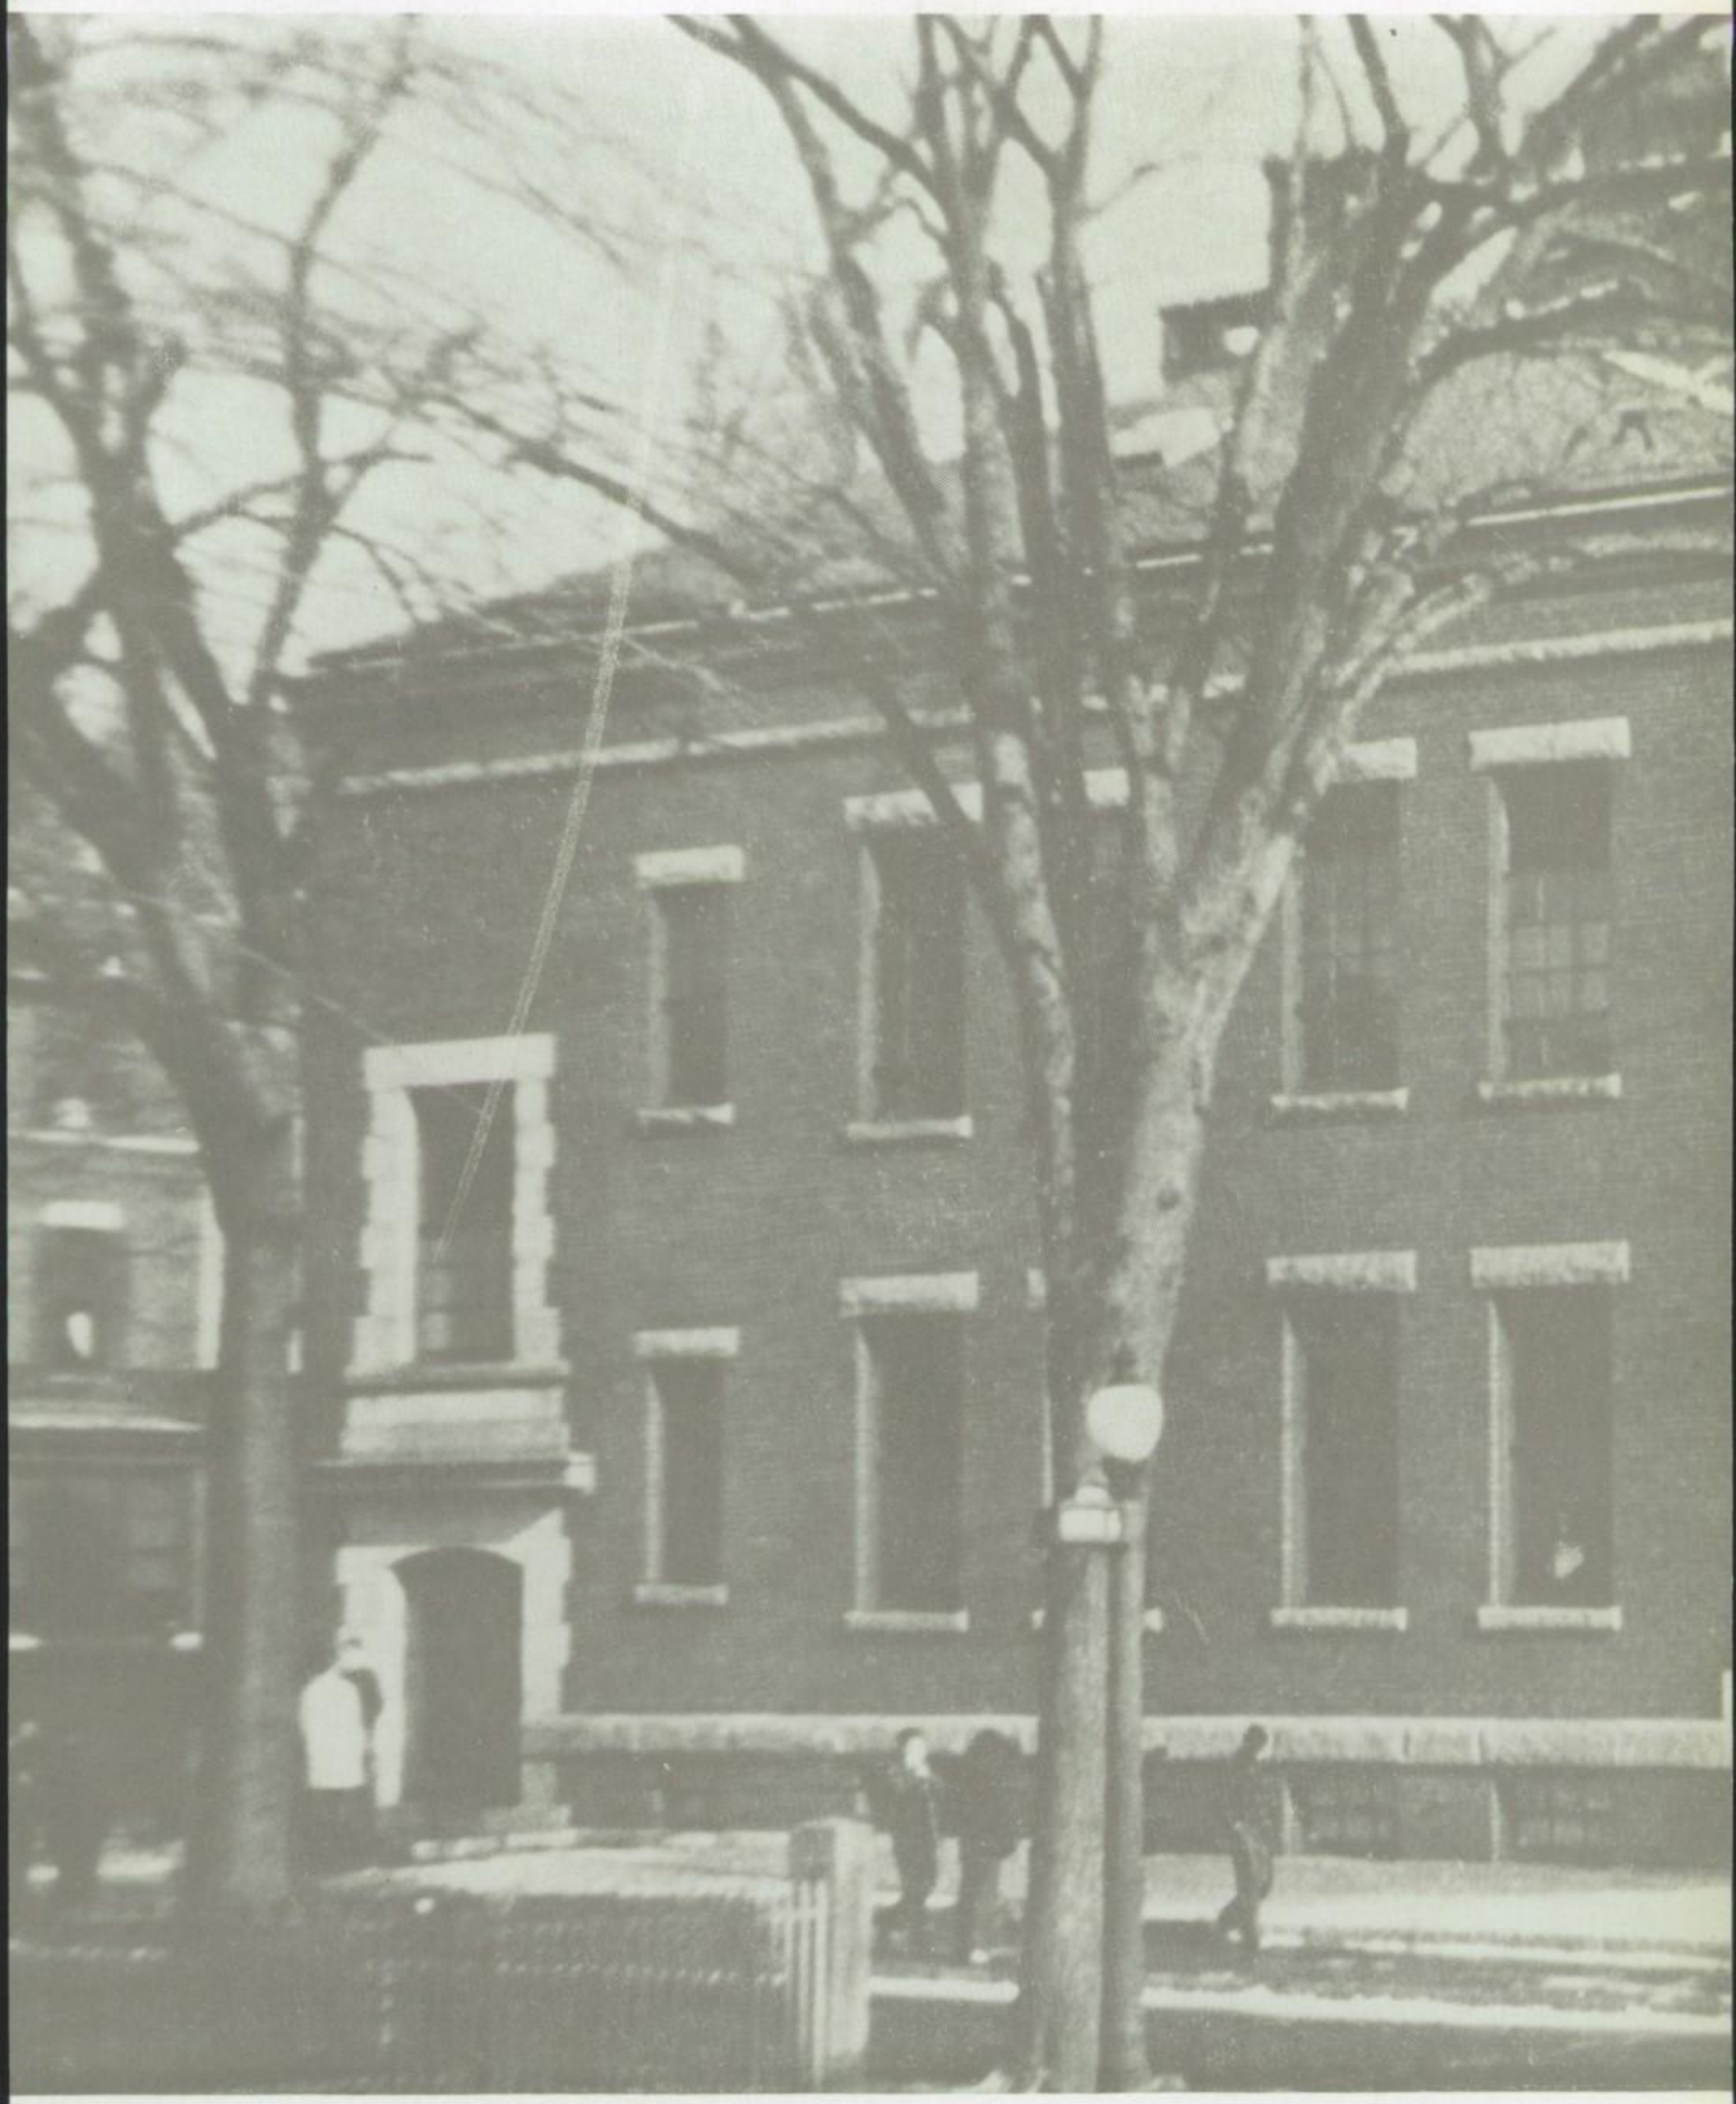
"Scoop" seems anything but suitable for a dignified chap like Everett. But, what's in a name? Everett has often represented Holy Family on our baseball team; he was even good enough to play on the American Legion team last summer. He is fond of winter sports as well as those of summer. His plans for the future are not definite, but he hopes to be a success. We hope and feel confident that he will succeed in whatever his work may be.

"Be thou as just and gracious unto me
As I am confident and kind to thee."

Five members of our class left us during the senior year. If they had remained with us our numbers would have far surpassed those of any other graduating class at Holy Family. We regret that the following students could not stay with us to the end:

NORMAND BREAULT YVETTE COULOMBE ROLAND LEFEBRE
JOHN O'BRIEN BARBARA ROMINE



Left - Top. Mildred Anthony, Mary LaRoche, Lillian Dauplaise, Norbert Fraga.
Center. Cormier, Fraga, Senecal and Comeau.
Right - Top. Fraga, Gillis, M. Anthony, M. LaRoche

Bottom—X O'Connor, J. Callahan, A. Sheehan, M. Haworth, G. Viera, M. Tighe.

THE MARIA 'FORTY-ONE

When Autumn came upon the stage,
And took us to her heart,
We entered Holy Family's doors
To play our little part,
And shivered so when Seniors passed
Because they looked so smart.

We thought our Freshman year was hard,
But we began to see,
That when we brought our lessons home
And studied faithfully,
Good marks we'd get in every test
And that's what counts, you see.

By mid-year we were not so green,
We found our way around.
To Charlemagne and to science, too,
And Latin we were bound.
Yet we just loved to cheer our teams
As they new victory found.

We left our Freshman days behind,
For Sophomores were we;
We tackled our Arithmetic
The conquerors to be.
In English we enjoyed our work,
And studied happily.

New books, new thrills, new rooms, new joys,
Were things that brought delight,
On germs and other harmful things
We waged a ceaseless fight.
For culture in French we daily toiled
As verbs were brought to light.

The only thing that certain year
That brought us much dismay,
Was eighty-one long steps to climb—
I counted them one day.
But that did not discourage us,
We went our merry way.

When we returned to school once more
Along came our big thrill,
We moved into the "real high school",
The Juniors' seats to fill;
We loved that year so very much,
I guess we always will.

In '40, Seniors we became,
And justly proud were we.
We were the highest class of all
In Holy Family.
Yet to our name we found attached
Responsibility.

Though "Study Hard" our motto's been,
We find it not all work.
We have our fun when duty's done,
For study we won't shirk.
Still, it is true that often we
Our patient teachers irk.

To Juniors we now fling the torch;
We trust you; do not fail
To hold aloft our standards high,
Bravely to withstand the gale
Of education's foes; to blaze
A new enlightment trail.

Class Prophecy

As I sat dreaming in a cozy chair
I gazed with a vacant steady stare;
I dreamed I was living in the future that lies
Ahead of my classmates of H. F. High.
First, to a big fellow, if you don't mind,
Hackett, with his smile is the actor kind;
Can you imagine what are my thoughts?
Wilfred Moss, a hotel bell-hop!;
A fine fellow, quick with his hand,
Leo Harrison is now a G-man;
Just like flies, look at them fall,
It's Fraga playing professional ball;
Simply tired after twenty X-rays,
Dr. Senecal can call it a day;
With hands filled with a book or a file
Secretary Sheehan works all the while;
You can't play ball and still be a beau!
"Always work hard," says Coach Normandeau;
With jokes and puns still flying fine,
Comedian Frey is tops for '49;
Don Gillis, the Master of Shakespeare's lines,
Is the leading dramatist of our modern times;
Betty, his sister, is quite renowned
For her society column called, "Nosing Around";
Girls, to look nice when attending the ball,
Beautician LaForest will make all men fall;
When in doubt or worried when troubles press,
Father Cormier's words, your heart will bless;
Never give up, never lose faith,

General Hardman is guarding the gate;
Always ready to explore, always prompt to discover,
"Bring Em' Back" Sullivan is alert to recover;
Listen to the wind, listen to the waves,
Hear the command Captain Keighley gave;
"Judge, will you kindly hear my plea?"
This is what Ulysse has chosen to be;
Jeanne McCrohan is on the rightful path
To a career as professor in dear old math;
Pupils of Sibor's history class
Are confident that they will pass;
Girls, gather around and be sure to hurry
Hear the advice given by Professor Curry.
Ladies, that your husbands may not brood
Give them Miss Anthony's home-cooked food;
Just a little more red and a little more blue,
Artist Pat Clarke always knows what to do;
Now stop, and look, and listen,
See Marshall's new plane glisten;
Lucy Sherman is enjoying a wonderful life
As Mrs. Dupont III, the millionaire's wife;
Milly, "the girl with the dancing toes"
Is now a star in the play, "Cheerios!"
Mary LaRoche, petite laughing girl,
Has invented a wave that will always curl;
Kitty McGuire, you'll never guess!
Has turned out to be an air hostess;
Bachie, that quiet, studious fellow,
In Florida, enjoys a life that is mellow.
Margaret Tighe, so full of fun,
Has fulfilled her desire to become a nun;
James Mendoza, whose faith never ceased
Has zeal, as a priest, which has daily increased.
Dot Meade who has earned her master's degree,
Is a dentist and charges an enormous fee;
Denise earns her living by finger-prints,
With Julia, the Police-woman, giving her hints;
Attorney Ed Lopes with his persistance,
Never meets with any resistance;
Actress Ferreira, the great Broadway star,
Has fame and fortune both near and far;

Lillian Dauplaise, of world-wide reknown,
And Limerick, as writers, brought fame to our town;
Sullivan and Travers, the inseparable pair,
Own a shop selling flowers "Ready For Wear."
Vanasse is a star on the Boston Bees' Team,
He's the fulfillment of every girl's dream;
Kay Saunders models in a New York store,
And her pal, Lou Coholan, is single no more;
"Gerry" Viera, our young dancing teacher,
Is now on the stage as a headlining feature;
Paradis and Dupre, two sopranos of the best,
Are with Denault and his band touring the West;
Kelly and Mulvey have entered religion,
And Francis Connor is raising pigeons;
Natalie saves lives in her career as a nurse,
While Ohm, undertaker, does just the reverse;
Ward flies a passenger plane abroad,
Claire Thiry, as stewardess, just trusts in the Lord;
Paquette as a sailor has turned out quite well,
And Loan as a soldier wants to fire his first shell;
At millinery O'Malley and Gallagher are best,
You have the head, they'll do the rest;
Sherman, Morris, O'Connor and Pell,
As Stenogs they all are doing quite well;
A secret agent in a well-known source,
Is Mary Swarbrick, who takes you by force;
Choquette and Haworth are society writers,
Luckraft has joined Uncle Sam's fighters,
Aurore Viens, musician beyond doubt,
Assists Rita Moran, as she taps the notes out;
Simonne and Yvonne are world famous cooks,
And noted for writing their recipe books;
Dextradeur, Belanger, and Voghel together,
Advise what to wear in all kinds of weather;
Jeanne Dufour, a nurse on a huge ocean liner,
Is engaged to a doctor and thinks none is finer;
Celia Rose's foods are a treat to all,
If you try them once, you repeat the call;
Joe Torres, a captain, as fine as can be,
Is proud of his liner which sails o'er the sea;

Terry and Mary, both working girls,
Style coiffeurs for women, with numerous curls.
I woke with a start and remembered my dream,
And thought, if fulfilled, how strange it would seem!

THE WILL OF THE SENIOR CLASS

To the Freshman we do bequeath:

Mary's smile and Margaret's laughter,
Ulysses's friendly grin;
Elaine's brilliance, Everett's blushes,
(Much to their chagrin.)

To the Sophomores we do bequeath:

Conrad's questions and Edward's answers.
Julia's comical talk;
Theresa's voice, Norbert's laugh,
Melania's dignified talk.

To the Juniors we do bequeath:

William's hair and Betty's stories,
Lucy's history book;
Natalie's notes, Mildred's giggling,
Kitty's studious look.

To the Next Senior Class we do bequeath:

Lopes' orations, and Sully's essays,
Hackett's center berth;
Jimmie's dimples and Gillis's voice,
Raymond's perpetual mirth.

To those who'll come when we are gone
I'll leave the following to carry on:

Joseph's dancing and Curry's sodas,
David's curly hair;
Lillian's ambitions, Rose's knee socks,
Leo's friendly air.
Mildred's smile and Agnes' lunches
Roland's quiet manner;
Clair's sweater, James's "Virgil",
Jeanne's H. F. Banner.

HY FY SPY STAFF

The Hy Fy Spy

Early in the school year Monsignor McKeon decided that our school paper should no longer be mimeographed but that we should have a printed paper, one that would be more representative of Holy Family High School. While we regret the passing of our informal paper which contained current topics concerning ourselves and our interests, as well as the covers of varied hues with drawings made by pupils of the school, we respect the wishes of the Monsignor and therefore we have tried to the best of our ability to carry the Hy Fy Spy through its period of transition. We pass on to the Class of 1942 the work that we have begun. May they continue and improve upon our project.

First Row—Jacqueline Dauplaise, Evelyn Downey, Grace Theberge, Marie Pfaffenzeller, Gladys Lynch.
Second Row—Blanche Trudeau, Madeleine LaForest, Lillian Souza, Winifred Francis, Mary Braley.
Third Row—Antoinette Rose, Eileen Sheehan, Corinne Ward, Alice Sheehan.

The Verse Choir

Catherine Tyran's, "Prayer to Our Lady", formally opens the choral speaking program. "The Cathedral Chimes", follows and the "Spinning Song" convinces everyone that verse speaking is pleasing. Eleanor Forjean's "Hannibal Crossed the Alps" is an old favorite, and Vachel Lindsay's, "Proud Mysterious Cat", is an essential part of every choral repertoire. "The Quest of the Rib-band", is a treasury of variety. These selections were the ones chosen by the girls for a school audition.

Members of the Holy Family choir were the guests of the Saint Joseph's Choir. The Providence lassies were splendid and their program was instructive, entertaining, and successful.

GRANDCHILDREN OF HOLY FAMILY

Former graduates show their gratitude, love and loyalty to Holy Family by sending their children to their Alma Mater in order that they, too, may share in the benefits of Catholic education. This year there are three graduates who may call themselves Holy Family's grandchildren.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. (1914) and Mrs. Thomas Clarke and the niece of the late Reverend John Clarke (1910) of Saint Mary's Church, Hebronville. Patricia attended Holy Name School for eight years previous to her high school days.

Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. (1911) and Mrs. James McCrohan and the niece of the late Reverend Thomas La Roche (1926). Jeanne also attended Holy Name Grammar School.

Eugene is the son of Mr. (1914) and Mrs. Eugene H. Sullivan. He graduated from Holy Family Grammar School.

Brother and Sister Group

We consider it remarkable that four families have two representatives in the graduating class of 1941.

1. Donald and Elizabeth Gillis are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gillis. Three of their four years in high school have been spent together.

2. Melania and Natalie Ferreira are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferreira. The girls have been together in school for many years. Both have been outstanding in their work.

3. Raymond and Roland Deneault have been together in school for the past three years. Roland studied in Canada for some years before he came to Holy Family while Raymond graduated from St. Anthony's in this city.

4. Elizabeth and Lucy Ann have been in the same class for two years. Lucy Ann was a member of the Class of 1940 but was forced to remain out of school for the greater part of her Junior year because of illness. Last year the Class of 1941 received her as one of its members. We are glad that Lucy Ann has been able to remain with us until graduation.

DRAMATICS

Our humble little dramatic club has grown to the vast proportions of a little theatre group. The professional flavor of accepting the challenge to produce difficult plays has become savory to our play loving appetite. The mere mention of The Valiant, The Pampered Darling, and The King's Jongleur, will ever be sweet music to our ears. Donald Gillis, Edward Lopes, Elaine Luckraft, and John Senecal were the cast of that breath-taking tragedy, The Valiant. The darling, John Romine, was pampered by Alice Sheehan, Louise Pell, and a bevy of other lovely girls. Guy Colombe was a agile jester in the Christmas play. Will you ever forget that grand choir of boys clad in the cream color robes as Dominican novices? They were splendid. Patricia, a Lenten drama, was presented to a "full house." The gentle and appealing Saint Agnes was played by Claire Thiry. Truly she was "a thing of beauty and delight." Melania Ferreira was deservedly acclaimed by the newspapers as a dramatic artist in her portrayal of the wicked slave girl Flavia.

The rustle and shimmer of silks, taffetas, and brocades was a pretty sight to enhance the fair sex in An Old-Fashioned Girl. The lead, Agnes Gallagher, was the most winsome heroine who ever "trod our boards." Donald Gillis was always refreshing whether he played the handsome hero, the cynical prisoner, or the Cockney sailor. Louisa May Alcott, herself, would be all "ohs" and "ahs" of delight with Maurice Normandeau's stage design. Ruth Limerick, Janet Thomas, Mary Haworth and Doris Normandeau were serenely gay in captivating the manners and modes of the Post Civil War days, when the art of living was at a much slower pace than it is today. Melania gave an interesting and youthful interpretation of Miss Mills. Natalie took all the choice superlatives of the house as the eccentric Kate King. It must have gone against the "grain" for Edward Lopes and Edward Cormier to convert themselves into dandies. John Buckley's voice and poise were admirably appropriate for Mr. Shaw. His daughter, Theresa La Forest, will live in memory as the songbird of The Last Rose of Summer.

Great strides have been made in accumulating a wardrobe. Under the direction of the Sisters and through the efforts of the N. Y. A. girls, costumes have been made. The suspender dress, worn by Lucille Fairbanks is Flight 8, was the model selected by the junior girls for their tap dance uniform. The freshmen chose a long, formal, princess style.

Scenic effects have been achieved through the medium of lights. Homemade dimmers have been attached to the reflector spots and beautiful color combinations have made effective many programs, especially in The Monsignor's Yester-years.

Cultural activities were appreciated by the students who had the opportunities of taking advantage of them. The Catholic Women's Club reserved places for a group who heard John Louis Bonn, S. J., the author of So Falls the Elm Tree. On another occasion an invitation was accepted from the Dramatic Club of St. Mary's High School in Taunton to be present at Anne of Green Gables.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

September, 1940, found the students of Holy Family beginning a new scholastic year. As is customary on the re-opening of school sessions, they attended Mass in order to gain God's blessing on their work. The Pastor offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, at the close of which he spoke inspiringly and encouragingly to the student body. His sincere and kindly interest was evidenced throughout the talk which concluded with an earnest exhortation that all return to their classes and studies with renewed determination to do their best during the year.

October brought a big surprise to us. Father McKeon had been honored in a very special way, namely, Our Holy Father had seen fit to confer upon him the title of Monsignor. Naturally, we were elated and, to show the newly-made prelate that we, too, were honored, we prepared for him a most unusual program.

In a comparatively short time a congratulatory song was learned; several living pictures were arranged; and at the close, a grand finale was sung. In order that our program might have a personal touch, each living picture aimed to recall to the Monsignor an important event of his life. We named our tableaux "Yester-years". Gladys Lynch, a Sophomore, assisted by the Verse Choir, read the accounts depicted. At timely intervals the curtain was drawn and the different pictures were revealed. Monsignor beheld scenes which form part of the life of every boy blessed with the Catholic Faith and a vocation to the priesthood, from the day of his baptism until the time when he daily offers Mass for his people. No one who saw that day's impressive program will ever forget it. Besides the priests of the parish, Reverend James McDermott, S. J., an alumnus of Holy Family, was present on this joyous occasion. After the Pastor had expressed his gratitude for all we had done so willingly for him, Father McDermott addressed the students. He recalled the days which he had spent at Holy Family and congratulated us on our continuing the good work begun many years ago.

During the later part of October, the Sisters and many girls passed a very enjoyable day at the Star of the Sea Villa.

November offered us two enjoyable assemblies. Doctor Dengal, foundress of the Medical Missionary Sisters, gave an interesting and enlightening conference on the manners and customs of the people of India. Doctor Dengal was accompanied by Doctor Wynder who is now in India. The visitors were introduced by Reverend Raymond Considine, Director of the Propagation of the Faith in this diocese.

At our next assembly Reverend John Gallagher, a Columban missionary priest, told us of the many singular and entertaining incidents pertaining to his vocation to the priesthood. Father was a fascinating lecturer and therefore held our interest every moment of his discourse.

On November twenty-second, with the gracious permission of Monsignor McKeon and under the sponsorship of the Holy Family High School Alumni Association, a semi-formal dance was held in Moose Hall. The committee, with Mr. James Hayden as chairman, arranged a very enjoyable evening for all who attended the dance.

During Lent, the Monsignor gave us an opportunity to learn more of the significance of Holy Mass when the movie, The Perpetual Sacrifice, was given for our benefit.

February and March extended to us an opportunity of showing our knowledge of American History. We accepted an invitation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce to enter a radio quiz contest and ranked first among the different schools represented.

Reverend Joseph Bryan Connors, S. J., gave an illustrated talk on life at Holy Cross College. An alumnus of Holy Family, James Burke, appeared in the pictures, and received honorable mention.

On April twenty-fifth, Reverend Father McDermott, M. M., who is stationed at the Maryknoll Novitiate in Bedford, addressed us. Our interest was held from beginning to end of the conference on missionary life in China.

May first will long be remembered since we held our crowning ceremony in church for the first time. To Teresa Callahan fell the distinguished honor of crowning the statue of Our Blessed Mother. The girls in the procession wore white veils and were dressed in blue or white. To make the ceremony more impressive, Monsignor McKeon preached on devotion to Mary. Benediction followed. Theresa LaForest rendered a vocal solo, Gounod's Ave Maria, between the two ceremonies.

On May tenth we held a very successful cake sale in the Star Store. The proceeds of the sale helped to pay the Maria expenses.

On May sixteenth Mr. Louis Fitzgerald, a member of the publicity committee for Providence College, gave us an illustrated talk on his Alma Mater. Although the boys were particularly interested, the girls, too, enjoyed the discourse.

Our friends have been more generous with us when we solicited advertisements from them. Let us not forget them when we are able to assist them in any way.

MR. O'KEEFE

We were fortunate enough to keep Mr. O'Keefe with us another year. The boys measure up to his expectations because of his individual way in dealing with them. The fine work done by our teams is due, in a large degree, to the excellent coaching of Mr. O'Keefe. For two successive years he has led the lads to victory.

FOOTBALL

Holy Family's football team completed a very good gridiron season in athletic history this year. The boys opened the Narragansett League competition by defeating Westport, last year's champion team, with a score of 12-0. At Case High in Swansea, the Blue and White suffered a defeat. The next game was played against the Dighton team and was a scoreless game until in the dying minutes of the final quarter the Dighton boys made a touchdown.

The game played with the Somerset boys was similar to the Dighton game with the exception that after the Somerset boys had made a score, the Holy Familyites were aroused to real action. The result was that they staged a 76 yard drive and ended with a tie game.

The season ended, however, in a blaze of glory when Holy Family completely outclassed Saint Columbkille boys on the ice-covered Sargent Field. All honor for the season belongs to Coach O'Keefe's splendid coaching and to the boys who played under his guidance. Holy Family's line-up was as follows:

Leary, Loan, Manning and Vanasse — backfield
Farrell, Hacket — ends
Deneault, Fraga, Gillis, Lowney and Senecal — tackle
Bouley twins — guards
Phaneuf and Normandeau — center

Deneault and Phaneuf were obliged to give up their places on the team because of other duties. Both are veteran players and deserve credit for the work they have done. Fraga, Gillis, Hackett, Loan, Normandeau, Senecal and Vanasse will not be available for the team next year. They pass on to their successors the duty of continuing the good work.

BASKETBALL

With a record of suffering only two defeats and winning the championship in the Principals Tournament of the Narragansett League, Holy Family's quintet received and accepted an invitation to attend the Catholic Tournament sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization of the archdiocese of Boston. Reverend Father Fitzgerald and Coach O'Keefe accompanied the boys to Boston.

CATHOLIC TOURNAMENT

A strange floor and an unusually large crowd brought defeat to a nervous Holy Family Quintet in its opening game of the Catholic Tournament, where the boys lost to Saint Mary's by a score of 36-24.

The first half of the game the Holy Family lads tried in vain to break through the tight defense of their opponents, but when they finally succeeded, they failed to score time and time again.

In the meantime the St. Mary's sharp-shooters were breaking up Holy Family's defense and scoring with well placed shots.

In the third canto the Holy Family players became more accustomed to the floor and the position of the baskets and began executing their shots with deadly accuracy.

The last and final canto found the boys right back in their natural form; it was during this period that Ernest "Tally" Hassey, Holy Family's shooting start, and "Butch" Manning gained most of Holy Family's points.

"Chinky" Vanasse, who led in the locals' floor attack, was aided by "Butch" Manning, while Hackett and "Charlie" Remillard, played the shots off the backboards exceedingly well. "Charlie" Healy also did fine work accounting for six points.

The summary was as follows:

BASE BALL

Holy Family opened its 1941 baseball season by dropping a close 5 to 4 tilt with Fairhaven High at Buttonwood Park. "Butch" Manning pitched all the way for the Parochials. Holy Family made no hits for seven innings, when "Babe" Leary finally scored Holy Family's first hit.

Holy Family played its first winning game by easily defeating Dartmouth High 14 to 5 at the Slocum Road field.

Banging out a total of thirteen hits and as many bases together with a third inning eight-run rally, Dartmouth never recovered from Holy Family's tornado.

"Butch" Manning, "Tubber" Lowney, and "Babe" Leary divided the pitching duties for the Blue and White, allowing seven scattered hits between them.

With Frank Correia pitching for Vocational, the trade school defeated Holy Family High 5 to 3 at Buttonwood Park. "Franny" Loan lashed out three singles for Holy Family, and Johnny Duarte, of Voke, hit for the circuit in the second inning.

Holy Family closed their series with Dartmouth by winning 12 to 2. It was up to "Babe" Leary to win the game and he came through in remarkable fashion by allowing Dartmouth only four hits. Holy Family pounded out eleven hits. Eleven batters went to the platter in the eighth, which resulted in seven tallies and sewed up the ball game.

"Tubber" Lowney and "Butch" Manning starred for the winners, by banging out a triple and double respectively.

"Butch" Manning pitched a masterful one-hit performance against Westport, and enabled his mates to walk off with a 5 to 0 score. He sent fourteen Westport batters down by the strike route, and was stingy with bases on balls.

For Holy Family it was young "Fleas" LeFavor who banged out a first inning hit and run single, and a grand display of defense in right field.

It was Holy Family's first win without a setback in the Narry League.

"Babe" Leary scattered eleven New Bedford hits to hang up a 9 to 4 victory at Buttonwood Park. It was the major upset of the season so far, and "Babe" Leary and "Butch" Manning contributed to the upset by driving in three runs each.

Coach Win Dodge's crew were never in the ball game after the fifth inning, when the Parochials came across with a four-run rally. Starting on the mound for the Crimson was Charlie McKenna, and young "Babe" Leary for the Parochials.

"Southpaw" Omer Blais, of Prevost, pitched his team to a 11 to 8 victory over Holy Family High at Buttonwood Park. Holy Family's eight errors contributed largely to "Butch" Manning's defeat. The Blue and White knotted down for the remainder of the tilt.

"Red" Prevost starred for Prevost, while it was "Babe" Leary who banged out four hits in five appearances for Holy Family.

"Babe" Leary's masterful two-hit performance on the mound, and "Franny" Loan's home run in the second inning enabled the Parochials to win over Somerset. Holy Family banged out a total of fifteen base hits with "Pop" LeFavor, "Franny" Loan, "Butch" Manning, and "Scoop" Ward dividing ten hits between them.

"Babe" Leary struck out a total of fifteen Somerset batters and had them biting at a fast breaking curve all afternoon. Frazer and Bradley were the only Somerset players to make a hit.

In one of the best games of the season, Holy Family dropped a close 2 to 1 verdict to Fairhaven at the Stadium. After leading

1 to 0, going into the ninth, Fairhaven got two hits and an error by Holy Family, which resulted in winning the game.

By winning this game Fairhaven has won the series from Holy Family.

Jack Malcolmson's two home runs, and good pitching by Byron Ford, enabled Case to set back Holy Family 5 to 4, at Swansea. "Butch" Manning connected with a home run in the sixth with "Scoop" Ward on base to tie up the score, but Case came right back in the last half of the sixth to sew up the ball game. For Holy Family it was "Tubber" Lowney and "Scoop" Ward who made seven of the eleven hits between them.

New Bedford evened the series by taking a 5 to 3 decision over Holy Family High at Sargent Field. "Butch" Manning started on the mound for the Parochials, and went the distance, while "Maury" Robillard pitched for New Bedford.
